Outside of these hours you'll hear a recorded message informing you of the opening hours of the contact centre. In cases of emergency, you'll be advised to hold while the call is transferred to an emergency line, open 24 hours a day.

Did we get it right?

We love to hear from you if we've got it right. Our teams love knowing we have succeeded in helping you - it makes their day.

and if we didn't?

We absolutely want to hear from you so we can put things right and improve our service.

Do you want to make a complaint?

We're sorry if you do, we don't like it when things go wrong and encourage you to tell us. It's how we respond to you that matters, we would like the chance to restore your trust by allowing us to resolve your concerns for you.

Step 1

If you're unhappy with any aspect of our service, please call us and give us the opportunity to put things right. We will listen to your concerns and try to resolve the issue on the call with you.

In some instances our customer service team may need to speak to other teams to understand what went wrong and if this is the case we will come back to you with a resolution within 10 working days from the date we received your complaint.

If you prefer to email or write to us, you can reach us at customerservices@source4b.co.uk or at Source for Business, PO Box 9136, Bournemouth, Dorset, BH11 0GF.

Again, we will respond to a written complaint within 10 working days from the date we received your complaint. If for any reason we need longer than 10 working days to resolve your complaint, we'll contact you to let you know why and when you can expect a response.

Step 2

In most cases, we're confident that we will be able to resolve your complaint when you first make contact. However, if we've been unable to resolve your concerns to your satisfaction, our complaints team will investigate your complaint further and look to resolve it promptly, ensuring that we tell you what went wrong and why.

We'll always try to phone you to discuss your complaint so we can check our understanding of the issues and to help us deal with the matter to your satisfaction.

Step 3

In the event that we still have not resolved your complaint to your satisfaction or your complaint is over eight weeks old, you can contact the Consumer Council for Water (CCW) for free independent advice.

CCW represents the interests of water and sewerage customers and has legal duties for dealing with customer complaints. They will look at the facts relating to your complaint and liaise with us on your behalf.

For customers in Scotland

If you remain unhappy after step 1 and step 2, you can refer your complaint to the Scottish Public Service Ombudsman (SPSO). The SPSO is the final stage for complaints and will not normally look at complaints unless you have gone through our complaint handling procedure, it's more than 12 months after you became aware of the matter you want to complain about, or that have been or are being considered in court.
